Rheingau riesling kabinett 2004 weisshaus ries
Founded in 1870 by Robert Barthelme Ries, the family estate of 34 hectares centred on Pfaffenberg in the heart of the Rheingau wine region, is one of the finest in Germany. This wine, from the superbly elegant 2004 vintage, represents Riesling at its finest: pale in colour, delicately floral on the nose with flavours of ripe pear and white peach, a soft texture and a refreshing lift of natural acidity. Being quite dry and light in alcohol (11 degrees) it makes a charming partner for light dinner dishes... 50
