2004 hattenheimer schutzenhaus riesling kabinett balthasar ross.

The Hattenheim vineyards in the heart of Germany's Rheingau wine region were classified "Erstes-Gewachs" of First Growth in 1999 and the Schutzenhaus slopes face south-west to produce delicate wines of great elegance. 2004 was a superb vintage for Rheingau Riesling and this wine won the German Trophy in the 2006 International Wine Challenge. - SS
