VDP WEINBÖRSE 2008

GERMAN FINE WINE FAIR • TRADE ONLY

Sunday, 27 April, 11:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m.
Monday, 28 April, 10:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m.

Location: Rheingoldhalle in Mainz / Germany

The VDP's annual spring trade fair, the "Weinbörse" is a terrific opportunity to become acquainted with Germany's finest producers and their top-quality wines – all under one roof. In 2008, ca. 160 VDP estates from nearly all German wine-growing regions will present their 2007 collections as well as new releases from the 2006 vintage. In all, about 1,000 wines will be available to sample. The 2,000-square-meter exhibition hall offers ample space for exhibitors (organized according to region) and visitors, and public transportation to/from the Rheingoldhalle is excellent.

Homepage

Soar the heights of German wine with this eagle.
The mark of top quality wines and estates.
Made in Germany.

The VDP Prädikatsweingüter has been synonymous with Germany's finest wines for well over a century. Working hand in hand with nature, they cultivate traditional grape varieties, particularly Riesling and the Pinot varieties, in top sites throughout Germany's 13 wine-growing regions. Each of the 200 VDP estates is devoted to achieving the highest quality possible, yet each retains an individual style and thus, reflects the fascinating diversity of viticulture.
